ORDER:

Livestock Sector plays an important and vital role in providing nutrition, income generation, employment and poverty alleviation for the rural poor. Livestock and poultry rearing is an imperative factor for improving the Indian economy and food security. The National Livestock Mission to be implemented by the Government of India intends to achieve sustainable growth and development of livestock sector including poultry, increasing the fodder production and promoting skill development

2. The Government of India, in its letter first read above has informed that it has formulated a National Livestock Mission (NLM) to be implemented from 2014-2015 by subsuming and modifying seven Centrally Sponsored Schemes and seven Central Sector Schemes and the National Livestock Mission is organised into the following four Sub-Missions: -

- a. Sub-Mission on Livestock Development,
- b. Sub-Mission on Pig development for the North Eastern Region,
- c. Sub-Mission on Feed and Fodder Development and
- d. Sub-Mission on Skill Development, Technology Transfer and extension.

3. The Government of India in their National Livestock Mission Operational Guidelines 2014-2015 at para 4.2.1 has envisaged that the respective State Government / Union Territories are required to notify the State Level Executive Committee (SLEC) under the Chairmanship of Chief Secretary, having representatives from other concerned Departments of State Government, the State Agricultural Universities (SAU), Institute under Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR), Dairy Cooperatives, Farmers' / Animal Rearers' / Poultry Associations, etc, which will oversee implementation of the Mission in respective State. The Central Government will nominate its representative who will be a member in the State Level Executive Committee (SLEC). At operational level, State Governments shall constitute and notify a State Livestock Mission (SLM) which would be an empowered body for implementing the Mission Programmes at State and District Levels. The Principal Secretary / Secretary, Animal Husbandry will be the State Mission Director. He will also function as the Member Secretary of SLEC. The Director of Animal Husbandry will service the SLEC and the SLM. Panchayat Raj Institutions (PRI) existing in the State will be fully involved in implementation of the Mission, for forwarding the above proposal to Government of India for financial assistance. Further at District Level, the NLM Operational Guidelines stipulates that District Livestock Mission Committee (DLMC) will be responsible for carrying forward the objectives of the Mission for project formulation, implementation and monitoring. Accordingly, State Government / UT are required to issue necessary notification for constitution of DLMC which will be headed by the District Collector, having as members the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Zila Parishad or Zila Panchayat / Chief Development Officer / District Development Officer / PD of District Rural Development Agency (DRDA), representatives from concerned line Departments, Dairy Cooperatives, Farmers / Animal Rearers / Poultry Associations, Marketing Boards, Local Banks, Self Help Groups and other Non Governmental Organizations.
