6	A representative from Anna University	Member

3. The Committee, in the meeting held on 24.05.2022, discussed the importance of setting up and operationalizing 'Resource Mobilization Cell' in Finance Department and examined the expression of interest submitted by M/s.IIFCL Projects Limited.

4. After detailed discussion, the Committee observed that M/s. IIFCL Projects Limited have taken similar consultancy services for other State Governments and the Government of India. Since, the mandate of the Cell is to have constant liaison with the Departments of the State and the Government of India. It has opined that M/s. IIFCL Projects Limited will be suited for providing this service.

5. The Committee therefore recommended to engage M/s. India Infrastructure Finance Co Ltd. (IIFCL), as "Advisors/Consultants" for setting up and operationalising of a "Resource Mobilization Cell" (RMC) in Finance Department to monitor and follow-up on the release of funds available under various Central Sector Schemes and Centrally Sponsored Schemes of the Government of India by exempting it from Tamil Nadu Transparency in Tenders Act 1998 by invoking Section 16(bb) of Tamil Nadu Transparency in Tenders (Second Amendment) Act 2018.

6. After careful examination, the Government decided to issue ratification orders for having constituted the Committee as indicated at para -2 above and also accept the recommendation of the said Committee for engaging M/s. India Infrastructure Finance Co Ltd. (IIFCL), as "Advisors/ Consultants" for setting up and operationalising of a "Resource Mobilization Cell" (RMC) in Finance Department to monitor and follow-up on the release of funds available under various Central Sector Schemes and Centrally Sponsored Schemes of the Government of India by according exemption under section 16(bb) of Tamil Nadu Transparency in Tenders Act (2nd Amendment), 2018 and issues orders accordingly.

7. Necessary notification required under section 16(bb) of Tamil Nadu Transparency in Tenders Act (2nd Amendment), 2018 will be issued separately by Finance (Salaries).
