Total	60

The Basic Science questions will be of Postgraduate standard and would be related to the discipline concerned.

b) CONCERNED DISCIPLINE:

60 Questions will be related to the discipline concerned e.g. Cardiology, Neurology, Cardio Thoracic Surgery etc., and the standard would be of Post Graduate Degree

38. Candidates are not allowed to take back the question booklets and any request for the issue of Xerox copies of question booklets/ answer sheets/ keys will not be entertained

VI. DECLARATION OF RESULTS :

39. a. The individual Entrance Examination Marks for 90 will be published in the websites: (<http://www.tnhealth.org> / <http://www.tn.gov.in>).

b. The Secretary, Selection Committee will publish the merit list in the websites <http://www.tnhealth.org> / <http://www.tn.gov.in>

40. There will be no Rechecking/ Revaluation/ Retotalling of answers.

VII. MERIT LIST :

41. Two merit lists - 1) Open Merit List and 2) Service Merit List will be published

Open merit list (for both service and non- service)for each discipline of the Higher Speciality course will be prepared by computing the entrance examination marks and experience marks, which will be calculated to a maximum of 100 (Entrance Examination Marks to a maximum of 90 + Experience Marks to a maximum of 10).

Service merit list will be published separately.

42. a) The Individual Mark (Service / Non-service) is calculated by computing the marks secured by the Candidate in the Entrance Examination and Experience Marks of one mark for each year after completion of the P.G. Degree which is calculated from the last date of the month of passing Examination to 30.06.2014. (E.g. If a candidate scores 50 Marks out of 90 marks in Entrance Examination and has completed Two Years after P.G. Degree as on 30.06.2014, the candidate's total Marks will be $50+2=52$).

b) Fractional values of a year will not be counted for awarding marks for experience

43. Determination of inter se merit (rank) of candidates obtaining equal marks :

In case of two or more candidates obtaining equal marks in the total aggregate of 100 marks, the Inter-se merit (Rank) of such candidates shall be determined on the basis of the following order of preference:-

- Marks obtained in the entrance examination
- Least number of appearances in the Postgraduate Degree examination.
- Seniority in age.
- Random number assigned (Higher value will be given preference)

VIII. METHOD OF SELECTION AND ADMISSION :

44.(a) The final preparation of the selection list / waiting list for admission of candidates to the various disciplines of the Higher Speciality courses will be made on the basis of the merit list for each Higher Speciality.

(b) The merit list alone, one for each Higher Speciality Course will be considered. The allotment of seats will be purely on the basis of merit in respect of the options given by the candidates.

45.a)The Selection will be made by Counselling based on Merit only and no communal reservation will be followed.

b) 50% of seats in each speciality and in each college are reserved for service candidates, in addition to those service candidates selected in the open category. In case an odd number seat remains in any speciality in the total seats sanctioned for that speciality, that seat shall be marked for open category and filled by merit (as illustrated in Example 1).

The odd seat stated above is referable to each speciality and not to each college (as illustrated in Example 2)

Example 1 : In MCh (Urology) course, there are 8 seats in Madras Medical College, 5 seats in Stanley Medical College and 6 seats in Kilpauk Medical College. Thus there are totally 19 seats with 10 seats for the open category and 9 seats for the Service Category.

Example 2 : In DM (Nephrology) course there are 6 seats in Madras Medical College and 1 seat each in Stanley Medical College and Kilpauk Medical College. Of the 6 seats in Madras Medical College 3 each will be allotted to the open and service categories. The single seat in Stanley Medical College and Kilpauk Medical College will be allotted one each for the open and service categories as per Merit .

c) If there are no Non-service candidates opting for any Higher Speciality Course, the same will be allotted to service candidates.

d) If there are no Service candidates opting for any Higher Speciality Course, the same will be allotted to Non-service candidates.

e) For the newly sanctioned seats after the I Phase of counselling, reallocation of courses / colleges will be permitted as per merit from rank one. Joined and waitlisted candidates only can attend the counselling for the allotment of above seats

f) Candidates who are absent at the time of counselling without a valid reason for absence will not be considered for admission. However the Selection Committee reserves the right to permit the candidate to attend the counselling if a valid reason for absence is communicated to the Selection Committee. The candidate so permitted can only claim if the seat is available at the time when the candidate actually attends.

46. a) Candidates securing less than 50% of Entrance Examination Marks in other communities and 40% of the Entrance Examination Marks in reserved communities (BC, BCM, MBC, SC, SCA & ST) will not be considered for Counselling. (Entrance Examination Marks =Marks for 90).

b) Strict discipline should be maintained by the candidates for smooth conduct of counselling. If the candidates are found to indulge in any untoward activities, they will be debarred from the counselling and selection for the present and subsequent sessions.

c) The candidates appearing for allotment by personal appearance should bring the documents enclosed along with application in original . In any case candidates without original certificates / documents, shall not be allowed to participate in the counselling. Candidates who have deposited their original documents to Institutions / Universities and come for counselling with a certificate stating that " their original certificates are submitted with institution/ University" will NOT be allowed to participate in the counseling .

47. Any change or modification and relevant information pertaining to this admission process will be made available immediately on the websites. (www.tnhealth.org / www.tn.gov.in.) The candidates are instructed to frequently visit the websites from the date of application till the end of counseling without fail. All information including the date of counseling will be put up in the website. Call letters can only be downloaded from the websites. Candidates will be permitted for counseling accordingly.

48. Unauthorized absence of candidates for one month or more will be treated as discontinuation and the vacancy will be filled up by the Selection Committee depending on the availability of the time before cut-off date
49. Option exercised at the time of counseling is final and no request for change of discipline is permitted.
50. The candidates who are selected at the time of counselling shall pay the tuition fees in total for a sum of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty thousand only) by way of Demand Draft drawn in favour of the Secretary, Selection Committee, Kilpauk, Chennai – 10 payable at Chennai, at the time of receipt of the allotment order. After the receipt of the joining report from the Deans of the respective colleges, this amount will be transferred to the colleges concerned. This fee is not refundable . All candidates attending the counseling for D.M. / MCh courses have to remit a non-refundable amount of Rs.500/- by means of Demand Draft drawn in favour of the Secretary, Selection Committee as processing fee .
