Read:

1. From the Proprietor, Sri Balaji Surgicals, Samusigapuram letter dated 20.01.2014.
2. From the Director of Drugs Control (i/c) letter No. 2413/IW3/2014, dated 18.02.2014.

ORDER:

In the reference second read above, the Director of Drugs Control has stated that the samples of Bleached Bandage Cloth, B. No. 37, 3 and 55 manufactured by M/s Sri Balaji Surgicals have been drawn for analysis and they have been reported as not of standard quality by the Government Analyst, Drug Testing Laboratory, Chennai – 6. Necessary investigations have been carried by the Directorate and Show-cause memo has been issued to them to explain as to why the product permission should not be cancelled. Since no explanation has been received from the concern, order has been passed for the cancellation of the product permission, prohibiting them to manufacture the said product.

2. The proprietor, M/s. Sri Balaji Surgicals, Samusigapuram in the reference first read above has made an appeal to the Government to revoke the cancellation orders of the Director of Drugs Control issued to them.

3. Based on the above appeal by the Proprietor, M/s. Sri Balaji Surgicals, a personal hearing was conducted by the Secretary on 09.05.2014. During the personal enquiry, the firm has given written submission.
