ORDER:-

The Hon'ble Minister (Municipal Administration, Rural Development, Law, Courts and Prisons) on 07.08.2014 has announced on the floor of Assembly as follows:-

"It is proposed to identify atleast 25 such services being rendered by different departments and to simplify the same after extensive consultation with the concerned department and stakeholders. The public will also be encouraged to offer their suggestions for due consideration. After reaching consensus on the revised procedures to be adopted, the proposed simplified procedure will then be processed for adoption by carrying out necessary amendments of existing rules by the concerned departments. Personnel and Administrative Reforms Department will play a coordinating role in the entire exercise and ensure that 25 existing procedures across different Departments are simplified and streamlined"

2. In the G.O. read above, inter alia, orders have been issued that each department shall form a three person team immediately which will-

- (a) Identify ALL services being provided by the Department to the public, institutions, stakeholders, etc.,

- (b) Identify all stakeholders involved in a service
- (c) Re-look at the existing procedures and propose change requirements wherever necessary toward simplification and efficiency.

This three person team shall take ownership for this entire exercise in the department and shall ensure that ALL services being extended shall ensure a clear time frame and a standardized procedure be followed (receiving of applications and on to final delivery – clearly indicating acceptance or rejection).

3. Accordingly a three member team for the purpose mentioned in para 2 above is formed as follows:-

1. Thiru Praveen P Nair, I.A.S.,
