

P.R. No 916Press Release

In regard to the Chief Minister's Health Insurance Scheme, the Election Commission has issued the following clarifications:

- (i) The instructions do not prohibit those already issued with the cards under the scheme from availing of the benefit of medical treatment under the schemes, and
- (ii) In the case of those who have not got the card, there is no objection if they avail of the benefits of the scheme by production of certificate of income etc. from the competent authority.
