

K. Rosaiah

GOVERNOR
TAMIL NADU

*Raj Bhavan
Chennai-600 022*

Order No.1-4984/U2/2012

06 April 2013

A Special Audit Team was constituted by the Government of Tamil Nadu under Section 28 of the Annamalai University Act, 1928 to conduct a special audit of the University to assess the financial and other irregularities in the University. After inspection, the Special Audit Team submitted its report to the Government wherein it found financial irregularities including diversion of funds running to several crores of rupees and misappropriation of funds.

The Senate and Syndicate to whom the audit report was forwarded have admitted that there have been (1) diversion of University funds to the hospital, (2) appropriation of Provident Fund and Contributory Pension Fund, (3) non-remittance of pension contribution, (4) lapse in collecting dues, (5) appointments made in excess and (6) excessive fixation of salary.

The above admitted lapses have occurred on account of maladministration and lack of proper control over the functioning of the University. As Principal Executive Officer of the University, vested with various powers including the power to appoint clerical and other staff, the Vice-Chancellor is responsible for proper functioning of the University. It has become necessary to investigate into the matter in detail, from all angles and in particular with respect to the working of the institution, persons responsible for the maladministration, persons responsible for financial irregularities and the role played by you as the Vice-Chancellor / Principal Executive officer.

Therefore, you are hereby placed under suspension from the office of the Vice-Chancellor, with immediate effect, pending investigation into the aforesaid matters and the suspension will continue until further orders.

3/3

K. Rosaiah

Governor of Tamil Nadu &
Chancellor, Annamalai University