

PRESS RELEASEFREE TRAINING FOR SC /ST UNEMPLOYED GRADUATES.

Tamil Nadu. Adi Dravidar Housing & Development Corporation (TAHDCO) the University of madras (USAB, University Student Advisory Bureau) / TATA Consultancy Services Ltd., (TCS) are Jointly presenting a Free Training Program for unemployed SC/ST youth in Chennai city.

This Programme is organized to enhance the employability of SC/ST unemployed graduates by giving intensive training on English Speaking Course. This will help them to face interview confidently. TAHDCO and University of madras (USAB) has partnered with TCS to create a very effective training program which is being provided free of charge for unemployed SC/ST youth of Chennai city.

Candidates will be trained on English Speaking, Corporate etiquette and basic computer skills. Those candidates who have been regular in attendance, would receive TCS Certificates which would give them an advantage at job interviews. Also, their confidence, grooming and ability to converse in English would be a significant differentiator in their lives. TCS would also conduct interviews for all the certified candidates and would offer jobs to those who qualify and satisfy TCS recruitment norms.

Unemployed SC/ST Arts, Science and Commerce candidates who have passed out in 2010, 2009 or 2008 (graduate / post graduate) desirous of being considered for this important opportunity may come to.

Venue: Thanthai Periyar Hall,
- I Floor, Centenary Building,
University of Madras
Tolkappiyar Valagam (Chepauk)

TIME & DATE - 9.30 am on Saturday, 9th October'2010

An Objective Test would be held on 9th October and successful candidates would be selected for the TCS Free Training which would be conducted for four weeks at various colleges in Chennai city which are affiliated to University of Madras.

வெளியீடு, இயக்குநர்,
செய்தி, மக்கள் தொடர்புத் துறை,
சென்னை-5

Managing Director,
TAHDCO, Chennai

1/1
%
07/10/10