

The Bye-election to Dr. Radhakrishnan Assembly Constituency in Chennai, Tamil Nadu was scheduled to be held on 12.04.2017 and the Commissioner of Labour, Thiru. Ka. Balachandran, I.A.S. already stated that the workers (including the daily wage / casual / contract workers) who are voters of the said constituency, shall be granted paid holiday by the employers, to exercise their franchise on the poll day, as per the provisions of Section 135B of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, and instructions issued by the Election Commission of India.

Following the Election Commission's decision to rescind the bye-election for R.K. Nagar Assembly constituency, the holiday earlier declared to workers on April 12, has been cancelled. An order to that effect has been issued by Thiru. Ka. Balachandran, I.A.S., Commissioner of Labour, Chennai.
