

TAMIL NADU HOUSING BOARD

TNHB SCHEMES AND SITES & SERVICES SCHEME

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

The Revocation Committee of Tamil Nadu Housing Board has decided to give a final chance to the allottees of various schemes of Tamil Nadu Housing Board whose allotments have been cancelled due to non payment of monthly installments for three months consecutively, to restore their allotment of plot/flat/house by revoking the cancellation made wherever possible, as per the decision of the committee on revocation of cancellation. It is also informed that those allottees who are willing to avail this good opportunity may apply to the concerned Executive Engineer and Administrative Officers of Division Offices of Tamil Nadu Housing Board and also Head Quarters of Tamil Nadu Housing Board before 20.06.2012. The plot/flat/house of allottees who have not applied for revocation within the stipulated time will be sold out through public auction. However, mere application for revocation does not confer any right upon the allottees to get the cancellation revoked. It is also informed that the revocation committee reserves the right of revocation of cancellation and confirmation of cancellation as well. All the revocation cases shall be considered based upon certain guidelines decided by the Tamil Nadu Housing Board.
