

Press release

Tamil Nadu Sports Development Authority

The Sports Development Authority of Tamil Nadu, on behalf of the Government of Tamil Nadu, will provide special tickets for spectators to watch the 6th Khelo India Youth Games 2023 across all the four cities – Chennai, Trichy, Madurai and Coimbatore.

Sports enthusiasts, general public or whoever want to watch live action of the Khelo India Youth Games will have to download the TNSPORTS (ஆடுகளம்) and register their details through Tamil Nadu Sports Development Authority website (<https://www.sdat.tn.gov.in>).

They can then select the venue, game and date of the competition to register and download the tickets. These tickets will have to be shown at the venue on mobile phones or spectators can print them before coming to watch the Games.

The Khelo India Games will be played from January 19th to 31st, 2024 with 6000 sportspersons competing for honours in 26 sports disciplines. More than 1000 referees and 1200 volunteers will be involved.

Squash will be making its Khelo India Youth Games debut. Silambam, the traditional martial art of Tamil Nadu will feature as a demo sport.
