

On the occasion of Deepavali - the leading festival of Tamil Nadu, Co-optex is inaugurating a 'Special Handloom Expo' at Valluvar Kottam, Chennai on 19.10.2010 at 10.00 am. The Expo will be inaugurated by the Member of Parliament Kavignar Kanimozhi and presided by Hon'ble Minister for Backward Class and Handlooms Thiru K.K.S.S.R. Ramachandran.

It is going to be a grand Special Handloom Expo consisting of 75 Stalls displaying all Handloom varieties produced in Tamil Nadu as well as Khadi, Jute and Handicrafts products.

All the leading Weavers Co-operative Societies of Tamil Nadu, Khadi Craft, Poompuhar, Handloom Clusters are participating in the Special Handloom Expo.

The Special Handloom Expo would be a delight to the customers in Chennai since the best of Handlooms is being made available at the most attractive prices below one roof, just a fortnight away from the Deepavali festival.

The product range includes the latest designed Silk Sarees from Kancheepuram, Thirubuvanam and Arni with eye catching colours, Silk sarees with texturised zari and affordable price, Cotton sarees from Kancheepuram, Sirumugai, Salem and Paramakudi, the famous Kora Silk and Negamam Cotton Sarees from Coimbatore, Silk and Cotton Dhoties, Cotton Lungies, Angavastrams, Nagercoil Towels, Bed Sheets, Pillow Covers, Furnishings, Floor Mats and Foot Mats.

The period of the Special Handloom Expo will be from 19.10.2010 to 2.11.2010 between 10.00 am and 9.00 pm. The Special Handloom Expo will be open on all Holidays during the above period.

This Special Handloom Expo is sponsored by the Development Commissioner for Handlooms, New Delhi.

As is well known Valluvar Kottam – the venue of the Special Handloom Expo is located in the heart of the city with ample parking space and entry is free. A never before opportunity for the Chennaities to fulfill their festival needs under one roof.

CO-OPTEX

Issued by : DIPR, St. George Fort, Chennai-09.