

Press Release

The United Nations Secretary General has called on the World to celebrate the 3rd World Statistical day on 20th October 2020 and as per the guidelines of the Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation, Government of India, the Planning Development and Special Initiatives Department of Tamil Nadu has instructed Department of Economics and Statistics to celebrate the 3rd World Statistics Day on 20th October 2020 along with the line departments and other organisation on three days from 19.10.2020 to 21.10.2020.

The Theme for the 3rd World Statistics day in “Connecting the world with data we can trust”. This theme reflects the importance of trust authoritative data, official data, innovation & public good in national statistical system. The statistics division of the United Nations Department of Economics affairs in the global co-ordinator of the campaign, defining global key messages and making available outreach resource to countries.

In view of this, it has been decided to celebrate the 3rd World Statistics day on 20.10.2020, at the Secretariat in the 10th Floor of Namakkal Kavignar Maligai, in New Conference Hall at 11.00 am. The Hon’able Minister for Co-operation, Statistics and Ex-servicemen welfare will inaugurate the function and the Chief Secretary to Government will deliver the Special address.

On 19.10.2020, the Regional Joint Directors of Department of Economics and Statistics will be conducting a “Quiz Programme” virtually. On 21.10.2020, Special lectures will be delivered by the Secretaries, Collectors and Senior Officers of various line departments and organisations.

Commissioner

Issued By: - DIPR, Secretariat, Chennai - 9.