CHIEF MINISTER

SECRETARIAT
CHENNAI - 600 009

Date:19-2-2009

Dear C.J.

Unprecedented violence has taken place. I have sent the Chief Secretary, Secretary Home and D.G.P. to appraise you of the situation. To find out who is at fault, whether the Advocates or the Police and to ascertain the basic causes for this situation, your co-operation is very essential for me and for this Government. I am expecting your valuable suggestions to contain this violence and to ensure justice is done and peace is restored. Though I am in the hospital, if you wish to see me, I will come and meet you even in an Ambulance.

Thanking you,

Kind Regards
Yours sincerely,

(M. Karunanidhi).

To
Hon'ble Justice S.J. Mukhopadhaya,
Acting Chief Justice.
High Court of Madras,
Chennai.
