

PRESS RELEASE

The prestigious Government Museum, Chennai, which is over 169 years old, houses collections from various fields of natural and cultural history.

In connection with 75th Indian Independence Day Celebrations that is taking place nationwide, the museum has curated a special exhibition on 'INDIAN FREEDOM STRUGGLE'. It exhibits numerous artifacts, stamps, paintings, photographs, etc, pertaining to the iconic personalities who dedicated themselves in Independence Movement.

In addition, an exhibition displaying the prehistoric 'Adhichanallur antiquities and 'Keezhadi' excavation models has also been organized. It reflects the immense talent and inimitable skill of the prehistoric Tamil people belonging to the two of the most ancient civilizations of the earth, that are not less than 3000 years old. Their expertise in molding earthenware, casting and working metals, stone and wood, cultivation, weaving, etc, is represented through this exhibition.

The above-mentioned exhibitions will be inaugurated on 22.12.2021 at 10.30A.M by Hon'ble Minister for Industries, Tamil Official Language, Tamil Culture & Archaeology.
