

PRESS RELEASE

During the General Elections to Lok Sabha, 2009, the Election Commission of India has issued instructions restricting the number of persons who may accompany the candidate to the chamber of the Returning Officer at the time of filing of nomination paper. After considering that similar restriction in connection with receiving of the Certificate of Election would be helpful in controlling the crowd, the Election Commission has directed that when the candidates come for receiving Certificate of Election also, only a maximum of four persons may accompany the candidate to the office of the Returning Officer. A Nodal Police Officer will also be identified immediately by the District Election Officer, Dharmapuri to ensure proper compliance of the aforesaid instruction.
