

P.R.No. 256

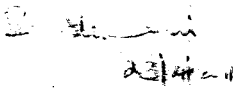

Date: 23.04.11

PRESS RELEASE

News items are published in the media that the candidates, Political parties and the Service Associations of Government Servants and Teachers are canvassing and influencing the Voters who received the Postal Ballot paper.

The campaign period for General Elections of Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly, 2011 is already over by 5.00 p.m. on 11.4.2011. Further no Government servant can canvass or otherwise interfere or use his influence in connection with or take part in any election related activity or campaign for political party. Any mistake on the part of Government servant will entail exemplary disciplinary action. Canvassing by political parties / candidates after the campaign period is violation of Model Code of Conduct and any inducement to voters is a corrupt practice and entails punishment / penal action.

Any violations in this regard will warrant action by Election Commission of India.

1/1

வேளியூர், இயக்குநர்.
செய்தி, மக்கள் தொடர்புத் துறை.
சென்னை