

Tamil Nadu Wins Two National Balshree Awards

The Government of India has instituted National Balshree Awards for the students, who excel in creative performance, creative innovation in Science, Creative Art and Creative Writing at All India Level. The Awardees will be honoured by Her Excellency the President of India in a function held at Rashtrapathi Bhavan, New Delhi on 10.06.2008.

Two students of Tamil Nadu have won National Balshree Awards for the year 2007. Selvi Srinidhi, Jawahar Balbhavan, Trichy and Selvi Swetha Viswakarma, Jawahar Balbhavan, Chennai have won the final round for creative performance and creative Art respectively. They are going to receive the awards on 10.5.2008 at New Delhi.

The Tamil Nadu Jawahar Balbhavans are organizing summer camps and training programmes in different parts of the State to sharpen the creative skills of children. Training is being imparted in dance, music, computer, keyboard, tailoring, drawing, craft, gymnastics, karate, silambam, etc. . The students are requested to enroll their names in these camps, avail the facilities offered and attain mastery, so that they could compete for National Balshree Awards.
