

Labour Management courses conducted by the Tamilnadu Institute of Labour Studies - Yields Respectable Jobs with good salary

The Tamilnadu Institute of Labour Studies is an unique educational cum training institution of its kind in Tamilnadu. Being a Government owned institution, the institute conducts valuable under graduate, post graduate and Ph.D courses in Labour Management which are affiliated to the University of Madras. This institute was started by the Government of Tamilnadu in 1973 and now functions as an autonomous institution under the Labour and Employment Department. Unlike other H.R. Management courses, the courses offered by this institute have specially designed syllabus, which mainly focus on labour laws and industrial relations. The curriculum also covers computer education, field work and project study. Well qualified, experienced teachers and eminent guest faculty take classes. This institute now functions at No.5, Kamarajar Salai (Near Vivekanandha Illam in Marina Beach) in Chennai. The fees charged are very nominal as prescribed by the Committee constituted by the Government.

All successful students of these courses are employed in several multinational companies and Government undertakings. Many students have become officers of the Labour Department. The TNPSC has recognized the course as a preferential qualification for the post of Labour Officers and the Assistant Inspectors of Labour.

Several students find jobs before completing the course through Campus Interview.

The courses have limited seats. For B.A. (Labour Management) 50 students are admitted and for M.A. (Labour Management) only 40 students are admitted. The institute also offers a Post Graduate Diploma in Labour Administration (an evening course for the benefit of employed persons). Those who have passed the 12th examination can apply for B.A. (Labour Management) course and those who have passed a degree course recognized by the University can apply for M.A. (Labour Management) and PGDLA courses. Applications are being issued for the above courses by the institute. The cost of application is Rs.200/- only and the last date for receipt of filled in application is 31.05.12.
