

Public (Elections.I) Department

Press Release

It is seen that due to the Local Body election, there are a lot of queries on adding of names in the electoral rolls. However, as per the law and rules, a seven days notice excluding the date of filing application, has to be given before any addition/deletion in the electoral roll can take place. In addition, some minimum processing time, is also required and so statutorily, names of people who have applied recently cannot be added in the rolls before the last date of filing nominations for Local Body Elections, that is 29.09.2011.

2. Also, the qualifying date for the purpose of inclusion of names, is only 01.01.2011. Accordingly all those who have attained the age of 18 after 01.01.2011, are entitled to get their name enrolled only in the rolls to be published on 05.01.2012 after the Special Summary Revision, 2012, starting on 24.10.2011, and their names cannot be added in the current continuous revision.
