

P.R. No. 351

Date: 28.06.2013

The Tamilnadu Institute of Labour Studies is an educational cum training institution, run by the Labour and Employment Department of the Government of Tamilnadu. This is a specialized educational institution in Labour Management Studies. The students who have successfully completed the courses are well employed in public sector, private sector and MNCs through campus recruitment or otherwise.

The last date for submission of applications for the M.A. (Labour Management) (Two years regular course) and the Post Graduate Diploma in Labour Administration (PGDLA) (One year evening course), has been extended to 15.07.2013. This has been done since the results of the undergraduate courses of the University of Madras have not been published. The application form and the prospectus can be obtained on payment of Rs.200/- (Rs.100/- for SC / ST students on production of a copy of the community certificate) in the Institute or by sending a Demand Draft for Rs.200/- along with a self addressed envelope of 26 x 20 cms. affixed with a stamp worth Rs.35/- to the Tamilnadu Institute of Labour Studies, No.5 Kamarajar Salai, (Near Vivekanandar Illam) Chennai - 5.

The institute will be starting a One Year (week end) Diploma Course in Labour Laws with Administrative Law, after getting the approval from the Government. The classes for this course will be conducted in the Saturdays (evening) and on Sundays.

Contact Nos: 044 - 28440102 / 28445778

Issued By:-

DIPR, Secretariat, Chennai - 9.