

PressRelease

Child Adoption Awareness Programme to be held in City

The Directorate of Social Defence, Govt. Of Tamil Nadu in collaboration with Inner Wheel Clubs of Madras and Chennai Galaxy are jointly organising an awareness programme on 'The What and How of Child adoption in India'.

Adoption provides people the joy of adding a child to the family but the adoption process in India today is a complicated one. The programme aims to throw light on the various aspects of this process.

The following eminent persons will address the gathering:

- Shri Lalvena IAS, Commissioner, Directorate of Social Defence, Govt. of Tamil Nadu
- Smt Andal Damodaran, President, Indian Council for Child Welfare (ICCW) and former Chairperson, Central Adoption Resource Agency (CARA)
- Smt Chandra Devi Thanikachalam, Vice President , ICCW and author of "A Handbook on Child Adoption in India"
- Ms. Nallini Olivannan, District Chairman, IWD 323

This will be followed by a question and answer session.

The programme will be held on Thursday, Oct. 31, 2019 between 10 am & 12.30 pm at The Alumni Club, Boat Club Road, Chennai – 600 028.

The seminar is free and open to all. Interested persons may please register your names with Ms.Javanthi Singaram +91 95000 71425 or Ms Aparna Vidyanath +91 98410 97933

Limited seats are available, so please register early.

Commissioner of Social Defence

Issued By :- DIPR, Secretariat, Chennai - 9.