

Press Release

The Entrepreneurship Development Institute, Chennai is organizing an one month Entrepreneurship Development Programme entitled “YOU CAN BE AN ENTREPRENEUR” from January 2012 to March 2012 at various Districts. The programme is designed to equip first generation entrepreneurs with business ideation, project report preparation and ways to tap financial assistance for their business plan.

This programme is exclusively for unemployed SC/ST graduates / Diploma holders only. EDI will conduct the programme at an Institution in the district selected by the EDI. The programme is entirely free for all SC/ST candidates.

All interested graduate / diploma holders of age group 18-35 belonging to the SC/ST can apply on plain paper, giving details of Name, Address for correspondence, contact information, Email ID, and submit their applications to the District Manager, TAHDCO of the district along with proof of age, community and education qualifications and two copies of passport size photographs. The applications should reach the District Manager, TAHDCO latest by 18.1.2012. Selected candidates will be issued call letters by the EDI, Chennai for attending the training programme. They will also be given certificates for the training undergone and guided to obtain loans for starting their enterprises.

Issued By:-

DIPR,Secretariat, Chennai - 9.